

Leave satellite radio alone. They are building a viable alternative to the AM/FM junk boxes that we have now. Traffic and local weather while I am traveling is important. Local stations can't and do not give the information I am looking for. We live in an area where the local broadcast stations are marginal at best. That's why we have satellite radioWilliam B. Rose